

Privacy Policy

Bellevue Dental. We are committed to meeting all relevant obligations, under the General Data Protection Regulations 2018.

Non-sharing of data for marketing purposes

We will never share your data with other organisations for marketing purposes.

Use of data for your treatment and marketing

We may share relevant data with other professionals if it is an essential part of your orthodontic or dental care, or if we are required by law to do so.

Unless you ask us not to, we will use your data to contact you occasionally with our news and tips on dental health. (If you don't want us to do this, you can 'opt out' on request.)

Data Compliance

We will strive to observe the law in all collection and processing of your data and will meet any request for you to see the data we hold, in compliance with the law. We will only use your data to carry out its legitimate purposes and functions in ways that are not prejudicial to your interests. We will take due care in the collection and storage of any sensitive data. We will do our utmost to keep all data accurate, timely and secure.

Use of our Website

We may collect technical data about the type of Internet browser and computer operating system that you use. This data does not identify you as an individual but is included in anonymous tracking statistics about how visitors use our website.

We might also place "cookies" on your computer device that will help us tailor web content to your personal preferences on future visits to our website. If you do not want this, you can disable cookies at the start of your web visit or via your Internet browser settings. You can also remove existing cookies from your device.
